

6516208187.txt

i dont think that congress should take away anything from xm-radio. it has everything that anyone can get. my boyfriend has it and everytime that we are int he car there is always something that we like to listen to. i think that congress should not worry about something this stupid and worry more about things that really mean something, like education.